A small part of Louisiana in Holland

In Zydecozity we created a bit of Louisiana to bring to you the best Cajun and Zydeco music. Bands from both Louisiana and Europe play their music for three days and nights, on three different stages. In the Barn you'll find the two main stages before a crowd of more than a thousand music and dance lovers. Here you will find the same atmosphere as in south-west Louisiana dancehalls.

In the Barn you'll find plenty to eat and to drink, wine, beer, soft drinks and traditional Cajun-food, Gumbo, Jambalaya, shrimp and a variety of Po-Boy's; all served to order.

In The House of Blues is the third stage. Here bands will play in between the bands on the main stages. There will be plenty of seats to rest your tired feet and have a chat with friends. Our famous Sunday brunch will be served here while listening to acoustic Cajun music.

At the start of each Festival day dance-workshops are free. Experienced dancers will teach you all the new steps and moves.

Enjoy your stay in Zydecozity
